CONDITIONS OF DEPOSIT General

OBJECT ENTRY FORM

The UCL take the same care and precautions for the protection of the item(s) described overleaf, whilst they are in its custody, as it does for those in its permanent collections. Except in the case of negligence on the part of itself, its officers or employees, the Institute of Archaeology's governing body does not accept liability for loss of, or damage to, or deterioration in, the item(s) described overleaf. No valuation indicated verbally or written on this form at the time of deposit will be admitted by the museum.

When item(s) are left at the Institute of Archaeology for whatever reason, a copy of this form will be given to the depositor as a receipt. This must be presented when the item(s) are returned to the owner or their representative. Both it and the original form will then be signed by the person receiving the items to acknowledge their receipt in a satisfactory condition. The owner (or the owner's representative) and the museum will retain their respective forms.

Enquiries & Identifications

Neither the Institute of Archaeology's governing body, nor its officers or employees, can accept any responsibility whatsoever for an opinion that may be expressed on items submitted for examination. Opinions may be given only to the owner of an item or to the representative of the owner.

Institute of Archaeology Collections staff are not authorised to give valuations, to assist in the disposal of private property, or to express opinions regarding the merits of business firms.

It is the depositor's responsibility to collect item(s) described overleaf and left for identification within 4 weeks of the date of the form. In the event of the item(s) not being collected within that period, the museum's governing body reserves the right to dispose of the item(s) as it thinks fit after a period of 3 months from the date of the form.

Special Conditions

The creator/artist of each object submitted as an exhibit for the Objects of the Misanthropocene Exhibition shall:

- retain full control over their created work.
- retain all rights to any IP contained in their work
- retain the right to withdraw their work from the Illegal Museum of Beyond website.

Each object will be available for return to its owner on completion of the Temporary Exhibition in February 2023 The website and its contents may be used in research and teaching, however we will seek permission from you if we intend to publish your object images/content beyond its presence as an exhibit in the exhibition and website.
